

Conveni-Pack wins Top Environmental Accolade

Conveni-pack has secured the accolade of Environmental Product of the Year at this year's Cooling Industry Awards. The annual awards ceremony was held at the Royal Lancaster Hotel, London on 5 October.

Scott Dorrall, specified sales director commented: The awards were set up as a benchmark for the industry to produce a fresh approach to the refrigeration and air conditioning sector, which is exactly what we have done with the Conveni-pack product. We should be very proud of this achievement.

The awards were judged by a panel of industry leading figures and presented by comedian Bob Mills. Scott Dorrall and Mike Kocurek received the award.
